After School Clubs

Wraparound Care (Breakfast, Aftercare and Extended Care) will run as normal when we return after the summer break.

Details regarding next term's after school clubs (football, cross country, art etc) will be distributed in September.

This week we say farewell to our Year 6's! We are so proud of all their achievements throughout their time at Redlands and we wish them well on their exciting next step to secondary school.

We would also like to say a huge thank you and goodbye to Mrs Heath and to Mr Larkins from Active Sports. Mrs Heath was here temporarily as an LSA in Mrs Penniston's class and next term moves on to pastures new. Mr Larkins has been teaching PE and running the very popular lunchtime activities - encouraging so many of our children to participate and get active at lunchtime! We can't thank them both enough for all their hard work and support during the past term!

Congratulations to Mrs Elliott-Bark who takes up her new role as ELSA (Emotional Literacy Support Assistant) and wraparound care lead next term.

We will also welcome three new members of staff, Miss Stretton who will be teaching in Year 5, Miss Hastie, our new LSA who will join Year 3 and Mr Odiam, our new Sports Coach.
